AMY GRANT AND MICHAEL W. SMITH LIVE THIS THURSDAY

Wenatchee, WA-Amy Grant and Michael W. Smith, well-known contemporary Christian music artists will perform live this Thursday, September 15 at 7:30 p.m. at the Town Toyota Center. The artists have not toured together since the late 80's making this 2 Friends Tour a unique concert experience.

The concert will feature Grant's best-loved material including the traditional "El Shaddai" (sung in Hebrew and English), a haunting "My Father's Eyes" sung to the lone accompaniment of her acoustic guitar, and a playful take on her biggest crossover hit, "Baby Baby. The second half will put the spotlight on Smith, who kicks things off with a creative medley of some of his biggest hits, notably "Place in This World" and "I Will Be Here for You." Plus, an audience favorite of "Healing Rain," an inventive version of his 1986 hit "Rocketown" and the piano-anchored "Welcome Home."

The concert, running a little more than three hours including a short intermission, will allow both artists plenty of time to perform on stage together as well as in solo turns to showcase their own respective styles. The evening will be a fast-paced mix of folk-rock, pop, confessional ballads, '80s-era rock and praise-and-worship material that will please the crowd.

Limited tickets are available at the Town Toyota Center box office, at the customer service desk of the Wenatchee Valley Mall, by phone at 509-667-7847 or online, www.towntoyotacenter.com.
